THOUSANDS AT WORK FREEDOM IS GRANTED

Russian Capital Has Almost Got Back to Normal State. Emperor Bows to the Inevitable and Yields.

TROOPS OFF STREETS WITTE IS NOW HEAD

People of St. Petersburg All Monday Night Made Merry Over Signing of Manifesto, but Social Democrats Dissatisfied. In a Signed Manifesto the Czar of Russia Declares That Freedom of Speech and Other Reforms Are Conceded.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The Russian capital blossomed out with flags and bunting Tuesday. All troops were withdrawn and the city presented its almost normal appearance. Nervousness of people has suddenly disappeared. Workmen by thousands flocked back to the shops and factories without waiting for permission of strike committee. Authorities did all in their power to encourage a spirit of rejoicing over the newly granted liberties. It was by order of General Treppoff the regulation decorations were hung out, troops being instructed to permit people to give vent to their feelings. Monday night's demonstration continued almost until daylight Tuesday. A procession of 5000 persons with red flags paraded Nevsky Prospect until 4 o'clock singing the "Marseillaise," and it then moved down Litanla street to the Russian bastille at the corner of Shpalernin street, where for an hour they made the welkin ring with revolutionary songs. Immediately opposite stood the well filled Cossack barracks, and the crowd took particular delight howling malediction in that direction.

Social Democrats, however, are urging the followers not to be tricked by the government, but keep up the fight. They organized a demonstration in the Vasil Ostrov district Tuesday morning in favor of organization of national militia and general amnesty.

The imperial manifesto produced a wonderfully fine impression and if executed in a frank and honest spirit must allay much prevailing discontent. Distrust of the government is so deep seated, however, the Liberals say not until the manifesto is translated into acts and the people actually enjoy liberties will confidence in the government be restored.

Count Witte has been showered with congratulations upon his personal triumph, but to all felicitations he says: "Wait. Reserve your congratulations until I have succeeded."

After seeing an Associated Press correspondent Monday night Count Witte worked until 2 o'clock Tuesday morning and was up again at 7. At night he began a series of congratulations with his friends.

Such news as came from the interior was distinctly better. Provincial authorities through machinery, which in that respect is perfect, spread the news of the grant of the constitution from house to house, and Tuesday morning the strike appeared everywhere to be going to pieces.

Before noon the city appeared to have gone mad. Such scenes were never before witnessed in Russia. Unrestrained by word or deed crowds did and said what they liked. Despotism seemed suddenly replaced by license. Red flags were everywhere in evidence. In churches devout men and women on bended knees rendered thanks for the blessings of liberty. People assembled principally on Nevsky Prospect from Kazan cathedral to the town hall opposite Hotel Delothrope. Traffic was blocked. Fully 30,000 people gathered listening to student orators. Red flags showed above the dense black mass of cheering humanity. Police kept in the background.

POPE PLEASED.

"May This Mean a New and Happy Life For Russia."

Rome, Oct. 31.—General satisfaction is expressed here at the manifesto of Emperor Nicholas granting Russia a consultation, and at the position taken by Count Witte. The hope is expressed that peace is re-established and Russia will become prosperous, there being a community of interests, especially in foreign politics, between Russia and Italy. King Victor Emmanuel learned the news on a railroad train after he left Genoa and was most pleased. The pope heard news this morning from Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, and exclaimed: "May this mean a new and happy life for Russia."

JOY AT ODESSA.

Thanksgiving Services Held and Public Holiday Proclaimed.

Odesa, Oct. 31.—Promulgation of the manifesto here was followed by the wildest excitement, vast crowds exultantly marching the streets. A notable feature was the troops marching and cheering with the people. Church bells are ringing, thanksgiving services are being held and a public holiday has been proclaimed.

Made Deep Impression.

Warsaw, Oct. 31.—The imperial manifesto granting a constitution to Russia made a deep impression on the people here. They embraced in restaurants and there was universal rejoicing, in which army officers joined. Military patrols have been withdrawn.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Celebration of the imperial manifesto making Witte head of the Russian government and guaranteeing legislative assembly, freedom of speech and right of habeas corpus, continued at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning in the streets of the city, where crowds are singing the national hymn, cheering for the emperor and shouting themselves hoarse. The restaurants and cafes were closed at 3 o'clock, disgorging their crowds, which had been drinking and making merry for hours around the tables, to augment the demonstration in the thoroughfares.

The Cossacks' patrol were utterly discomfited and confounded and were wholly at a loss to understand the meaning of the demonstration or why the crowds were singing, "God Save the Emperor," instead of the "Marseillaise."

The people displayed the utmost good humor toward the Cossacks. They surrounded their horses and patted their perplexed riders on the boots, shouting, "You can go home now. We no longer need you. We have liberty."

Then they bade the Cossacks toss their caps in honor of the constitution. After 3 o'clock the patrols were withdrawn from the streets, which was the only change.

Soon after midnight a crowd of several hundred gathered in a great square before the winter palace and sang a chant from the chant liturgy, addressed to the emperor, and the national anthem and finished with rousing cheers for his majesty and the imperial family. Then they marched to the barracks of the Preobrazhensky guards and demanded the regimental band to lead the procession.

Disappointed there they continued to the barracks of the Pavolsk guards on the same errand, but the soldiers, misunderstanding the purport of the demonstration, threw open the gates of the court and threatened to fire unless the crowd made off at once, when the manifestors fled in terror. In the Nevsky Prospect there was some rough play, but the boisterous ones formed an inconsiderable portion of the crowds. There were no illuminations or other formal demonstrations, the population of the capital having lived too long under a regime under which all initiative for outward festivity came from the police.

The following is the text of the manifesto:

"We, Nicholas, by the grace of God and autocracy of all Russian, Grand Duke of Finland, etc., declare to all our faithful subjects that the troubles and agitation in our capitals and numerous places fill our hearts with excessive pain and sorrow.

"The happiness of the Russian sovereign is indissolubly bound up in the happiness of our people and the sorrow of our people is the sorrow of the sovereign.

"From the present disorder may arise great national disruption. They menace the integrity and unity of our empire.

"The supreme duty imposed upon us by our sovereign office requires us to efface ourselves and to use all force and reason at our command to hasten in securing the unity and co-ordination of the power of central government and to assure the success of measures for pacification in all circles of public life which are essential to the well being of our people.

"We therefore direct our government to carry out our inflexible will in the following manner:

"First—To extend to the population the immutable foundations of civic liberty, based on the real inviolability of persons, freedom of conscience, speech, union and association.

"Second—Without suspending the already ordered elections to the state Douma, to invite participation in the Douma, so far as the limited time before the convocation of the Douma will permit to those classes of population now completely deprived of electoral rights, leaving the ultimate development of the principle of the electoral right in general to the newly established legislative order of things.

"Third—To establish as an unchangeable rule that no law shall be enforced without the approval of the state Douma, and that it shall be possible for the electors representative of the people to exercise real participation in the supervision of the legacy of acts of the authorities appointed by us.

"We appeal to all faithful sons of Russia to remember their duty toward the fatherland, to aid in terminating these unprecedented troubles and to apply their forces, in co-operation with us, to the restoration of calm and peace upon our natal soil.

"Given at Peterhoff, Oct. 30, in the eleventh year of our reign.

"NICHOLAS."

BRYAN, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 1

The trial of Monk Gibson in San Antonio has been set for Nov. 20.

As Russia is about to get relief from her grand dukes, there may be a chance for America to check up her high finance grafters.

Tell it everywhere that Bryan is a town of good churches, good schools, good business, good homes and good people with room for more.

The worst blowout in the history of the Texas oil development has occurred at Humble. The Simms well went wild, swallowed the derrick and rig and created a lake one hundred feet wide.

The candidates are not finding the people of Texas aroused to the country saving state of frenzy this year. The average citizen knows there will be plenty of politics to go around next year, and plenty of candidates too.

Nov. 9 will be "A. O. U. W. Day" at the Dallas fair, and Nov. 20 at the San Antonio fair. Will M. Marvin, supreme master workman, will be present on both days, also members of the state grand lodge, and all members of the order are cordially invited to be present at one or both places.

Count Witte has achieved a greater victory at St. Petersburg than he did at Portsmouth. He has stemmed the tide of autocracy and oppression at home, furnished backbone for the vascillating czar, and as prime minister has given the people the right of free speech, free press, the right of assembly and a real legislative body and immunity of person, including the right of habeas corpus. Thus ends 300 years of absolutism in Russia.

A CALL.

The executive board of the Bryan association is hereby called to meet at the Baptist church in Bryan, Texas, at 10 a. m. on Nov. 7, 1905, to attend to business pertaining to mission work in our bounds. J. M. BULLOCK, Moderator.

Such incidents as the accidental shooting of Chinese are not uncommon and is usually attended by the payment of a dollar or two. Admiral Train and Lieutenant Train promised to send a doctor to attend the injured woman and compensate her for her injuries. The two officers started to return to the squadron when the woman became hysterical and the mob surrounded the Americans.

The Forepaugh-Sells Bros. great show has been discounted before it gets here by the spread of gaily decorated canvas adorning Coulter's store and proclaiming his great 30-day sale which opens this morning. The store is chock full of seasonable merchandise in every department and crowded with ready salesmen and sales ladies. Nothing has been omitted to make the event the biggest of Mr. Coulter's many successful sales. Mr. Coulter states that he is not now, and never has, given any man 10 per cent to inaugurate, help with or conduct his sales. He says every cut in price he makes goes straight to the customer, and he cordially invites the great buying public to join in the goods moving procession which starts this morning.

Mrs. Mary Laurence has at her residence several boys Eton and Buster Brown suits from $3 to $5; also several children's cloaks. They are from Kiam's, and will be on exhibition only a few days.

Mr. Butler, the expert sign writer who decorated Coulter's store for the big special sale opening this morning, returns to Waco today.

STOMACH CURE

An Easy Way from Standpoint of Convenience—Guaranteed by E. J. Jenkins.

The so-called cures for indigestion are almost as numerous as the victims themselves, and scarcely a day passes without the hopes of thousands of sufferers being raised by the discovery of some novel method of cure for this prevalent disease.

Until a combination of unusual remedies, heretofore but little known in this country, was made in Mi-o-na tablets, no certain cure for indigestion had been found, and it is therefore hardly to be wondered at that E. J. Jenkins who has the Bryan agency for Miona, is selling large quantities.

Mi-o-na is a guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach excepting cancer. If you have pains or distress after eating, headache, belching of gases, sour taste in the mouth, dizziness, heart-burn, specks before the eyes, furred tongue, sleeplessness, back-ache, debility or weakness, it shows that the stomach needs to be strengthened with Mi-o-na.

Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box before meals for a few days, and you will soon regain perfect health and strength. Ask E. J. Jenkins to show you the guarantee under which he sells his remedy.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.

SLEW WRONG ONE.

Bill Harrell Says He Thought Girl Was a Man.

Paris, Tex., Oct. 31.—Lela Sillman, a young colored woman, was killed a few miles south of Petty on the Alexander farm.

While a number of negroes were assembled at her mother's house, preparing to go to a dance a negro came in and, it is stated, started a difficulty, after which he retired. After the crowd had started to the dance, leaving Bill Harrell, a young dandy at the house alone, the girl, Lela Sillman, went back to the house to get something she had forgotten and was fired on as she was trying to open the door, the bullet passing through her head and killing her instantly.

The young negro, Bill Harrell, was taken in custody and was lodged in jail. He waived an examining trial and was remanded to await the action of the grand jury.

He claimed that he thought the girl was the negro man who had previously entered the house and raised a difficulty.
